

BY CONSENT.

No. 4

Characters of some young Women, belonging to the Changes : Who are to be Dispos'd of by Way of AUCTION, July 4th.

Conditions of Sale.

Imprimis. No Man shall Presume to bid but such as are very well able to maintain them after Marriage. Item, They are to be taken with all faults, for we shall change none after Sale. Item, He that offers most is the Buyer. Qualify'd, or nor: His Money will Supply his Defects.

They are to be seen every Day at their respective Shops, or where they spend their Time on Sunday, if you can find them.

16. July. 1691.

- 1 ONE very Pretty, Proper, black Gentlewoman in the ---Exchange, something Superannuated, but so fast fixt by continuance, that nothing but a Coach and six can draw her out, Worth at least --- 500
- 2 A Gentlewoman her Associate, she has an extraordinary Face, I mean for bigness, Worth --- 350
- 3 A Gentlewoman, her Face a little upon the Ruby, declares that if she does not go of this Sale, that she will go beyond Sea, Worth --- 200
- 4 A tall Gentlewoman well shap't, tollerably handsome, she has staid a great while for a Husband, but she says it was not for any ill Nature, and so desires she may be Accepted, Worth --- 200
- 5 One middle siz'd Gentlewoman about 23. Rough-cut, Pock-holes in her Face, not Ugly understands Court-ship, having practis'd it her self, not far off in a Neighbouring Change, Worth --- 250
- 6 A Gentlewoman about 15. very fair and slender, scarce an Arm-full, she loves a Man that tosses his Wigg with an Air, not very Rich though she has good Friends, we can't promise above --- 200
- 7 One little simpering Gentlewoman, tollerably-handsome, she has a very good way with her, and is worth --- 150
- 8 One Gentlewoman whose Father has the Reputation of making good Faces, and you may be sure did his Best for his Daughter, who after all is but so, so, she is good Natur'd; but her Eldest Sister being unmarri'd, she can't be worth above --- 100
- 9 A Gentlewoman very Pretty of a good Reputation; but a small Stock, and a Scanty-trade, she not having the industry to piece it out with her Tayl, like some of the rest, yet she would be very glad to be taken off of the Cares of the World, and may be worth --- 40
- 10 A young Gentlewoman in the uper Walk, about 18. a pale Face, sparkling Eyes, something too Airy, her Mother keeps her Country-house and a Coach, ay and a Plough too; yes, and the same Horses serve both, worth when her Mother Dyes --- 100
- 11 One very Curious, neat well shapt, tender Skind Gentlewoman, with a hard Face, alias a brazen Forehead, worth --- 320
- 12 One tall Black young Woman, Pretty-enough, and an Intriguing-Brain, Roguish Eyes, well Spoken, diligent at her Hands, and has a Woundy swing with her Tayl, worth if you will take her Word --- 200
- 13 A Gentlewoman a Milliner well stockt with Brick-bat's and Past-boards, well cover'd with white Paper to fill up the Empty-holes, trades most with Men, worth in Ireland, if you'll fetch it --- 250
- 14 One broad Fac't Gentlewoman, goes well Drest, strait Limbs, very Talkative, and stands much upon a Swords-man, worth --- 600
- 15 A Pretty young Gentlewoman about 14, worth with her Fathers consent --- 600
- 16 One Gentlewoman, extraordinary Witty, a pleasing Air, good Humour'd, Dances well, Sings incomparably, every way accomplisht, but because we will not impose upon any Body, we give Notice that her Apron is lin'd, if any one likes this Bargain, she will be worth in contribution Money --- 500
- 17 One very tall first-rate young Woman, thin Visag'd a pretty low Forhead, a sharp Nose, and by consequence, a shrill-voice, brisk-eyes, flat Breast's, very Nimble of her Hands and Tongue, very Covetous, and so, not very Nice in receiving Presents, she has also a very Confident, I should have said a competent Stock of Wit: worth at Present 0, but when her Grandmother Dyes --- 0000
- 18 One Widdow, open's her Mouth well, has a confident way with her, well stockt in any thing, but Money, but of that --- 0
- 19 One pretty civil Maid, who being Pus't up with the thick foggy Vapours of the Town, and eating too many Sausages, went to take the fresh air in the Country, from whence she is return'd well recover'd, Worth --- 200
- 20 This Number we reserve for a Slender pale fac't, Black young Woman about 16, worth just --- 300

Who for her many Qualifications deserves a Catalogue entire for her self, which if she will leave Frowning and Scolding, we dare promise shall be perform'd to Her satisfaction.